25X1

1. Comment. The troop trains probably carried components of the 32nd AAA Div (US) returning from the Justerbog area after completion of firing practices with live ammunition. Contingents of this division moved from Frankfurt/Oder to Justerbog in late March 1953.

2. Comment. The troop train possibly carried a component of the 7th Gds Macz Div to field exercises the beginning of which was indicated by transportation of troops to the Blumenthal railroad station on 5 June 1953, and other preparations for the marching of troops through this area.

3. Comment. The troop train was also reported with the same dispatching station and receiving station however, the troop train had Netze-litz as receiving station.

4. Comment. Probably a light AAA unit of the 63rd AAA Div (US) was loaded on the troop train. The entraining of the unit at Templin was previously observed. Possibly the loading of another troop train was also seen at the Templin railroad station.

5. Comment. Probably the movement of an air force medium AAA unit to Westrow for firing practice with live ammunition.

1. [REDACTED] the unit transferred from Torgau to Potsdam on 17 April 1953. The unit was subordinate to the TV Kochstedt and, in Potsdam, was quartered in a former cavalry barracks on Stalin Allee which had been occupied by a Soviet unit. Since Soviet rear details were still at this installation, the SF battalion, the tank battalion and the AA company of the unit had still to remain in Torgau. The Kavallerie Kaserne in Torgau which had previously quartered the unit was scheduled to be occupied by the Gloewen artillery school. ¹

2. On 19 April, the elements of the Guthermt cadre unit which transferred to Potsdam totaled 266 officers and 366 soldiers. The strength of the unit was to be brought to a total of 14,000 men at an undetermined date. ²

3. Specifically, [REDACTED] following strengths:

Headquarters	30 officers
Headquarters platoon	1 officer, 20 women
Supply platoon	20 officers, 40 NCOs and EM
Motor company	10 " 90 " "
S-1 Company	5 " 30 " "
S-2 "	6 " 30 " "
S-3 "	5 " 22 " "
1st Rifle Regt	75 " 250 " "
2d " "	54 " 194 " "
3d " "	60 " 90 " "

the rifle regiments were organized into a headquarters platoon, an engineer platoon, a medium machine gun platoon, 3 rifle companies and 1 medium mortar company.

4. Officers of the unit included:

Major Guthermut (fnu)	commanding officer, veteran of the Spanish Civil War
Major Trapschuh (fnu)	chief of staff
Captain Boecke (fnu)	CO of the 2d Rifle Regt
Captain Kratzer (fnu)	deputy of Boecke
Senior Lieutenant Thiele (fnu)	PK officer of the 2d Rifle Regt
Senior Lieutenant Rochlitz (fnu)	deputy of Thiele
Senior Lieutenant Sommerfeld (fnu)	CO of the medium mortar company of the 2d Rifle Regt
Junior Lieutenant Biela (fnu)	first deputy of Sommerfeld
Junior Lieutenant Lippert (fnu)	second deputy of Sommerfeld and officer in charge of interior duties.

Officers whose functions were unknown included Major Liebetreu (fnu), Major Pfarrer (fnu), Senior Lieutenant Zimmermann (fnu), Junior Lieutenant Wagner (fnu), and Junior Lieutenant Studtoff (fnu). Soviet advisers included 1 lieutenant colonel and 1 major as advisers to the commanding officer and 3 majors as advisers to the rifle regiments.

5. During the period of observation, the personnel of the medium mortar company was activated only with the 2d Rifle Regt. Its armament consisted of 13 x 82-mm mortars. This number of mortars was also available to the other two rifle regiments. On 17 April, Soviet infantry weapons from the Kirchhain-Dobrilugk ordnance depot arrived and included about 900 carbines, 400 submachine guns, 150 light machine guns and 40 medium machine guns. Motor vehicles available to the unit included about 30 two-axle H 3 A trucks, 4 EMW sedans and 20 EMW, AWO and JAVA motorcycles.
6. The personnel of the unit belonged to the 1931 through 1935 classes. About 10 percent came from Brandenburg and Berlin, 20 percent from Saxony, 20 percent from Mecklenburg, and each 10 percent from Saxony-Anhalt and Thuringia.

- 25X1 1. [REDACTED] Comment. Transportation records indicated that the other elements of the cadre unit moved from Torgau to Potsdam by late May. [REDACTED] 25X1
- 25X1 [REDACTED] It is believed that, following the transfer to Potsdam, the unit was subordinate directly to the Ministry of the Interior as was the cadre unit which moved from Grossenhain to Oranienburg in March. All other units are under the control of Territorialverwaltungen (Army Groups) [REDACTED] 25X1
- 25X1 [REDACTED] The elements of the Torgau cadre unit, which transferred on 17 April, were quartered in the former Leibhusaren Kaserne in Potsdam which had been occupied by a KVP PX school. It cannot be determined where the other elements of the unit were quartered. They may be quartered either in the former Gardekuersassier Kaserne on Stalin Allee or the barracks installation in Potsdam-Golm. The transfer to Torgau of the Gloewen artillery school was previously reported by other deserters.
- 25X1 2. [REDACTED] Comment. It is probable that the cadre unit in Potsdam may be scheduled to be brought to full division strength. The unit had already received tanks and SF guns in addition to infantry weapons.
